

ASSEMBLY BILL 1980
CHAPTER 538

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1. Adds one RVT member to the Veterinary Medical Board

SECTION 1. Section 4800 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4800. (a) There is in the Department of Consumer Affairs a Veterinary Medical Board in which the administration of this chapter is vested. The board consists of the following members:

- (1) Four licensed veterinarians.
- (2) One registered veterinary technician.
- (3) Three public members.

2. Extends the Board's sunset dates.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2014, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2014, deletes or extends that date.

(c) The repeal of this section renders the board subject to the review provided for by Division 1.2 (commencing with Section 473).

3. Establishes criteria for RVT member.

SEC. 2. Section 4801 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 4801 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

4801. (a) Each veterinarian member of the board shall be a bona fide resident of this state for a period of at least five years immediately preceding his or her appointment and shall have been a licensed veterinarian under this chapter and actually engaged in the practice of veterinary medicine in this state during that period.

(b) The registered veterinary technician member of the board shall be a bona fide resident of this state for a period of at least five years immediately preceding his or her appointment and shall have been registered under this chapter and actually engaged in the practice of a registered veterinary technician in this state during that period.

(c) Each public member of the board shall be a bona fide resident of this state for a period of at least five years immediately preceding his or her appointment and shall not be a licensee or registrant of the board, any other board under this division, or any board referred to in Section 1000 or 3600.

4. Establishes that members can serve for no more than two consecutive terms (terms being defined at four years); so it appears that if a member is appointed to a partial term, they are eligible to serve the remainder of that term and two consecutive four-year terms.

(d) No person shall serve as a member of the board for more than two consecutive terms.

SEC. 4. Section 4802 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4802. The members of the board shall hold office for a term of four years. Each member shall serve until the appointment and qualification of his or her successor or until one year shall have elapsed since the expiration of the term for which he or she was appointed, whichever first occurs. A member may be reappointed subject to the limitation contained in Section 4801. Vacancies occurring shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term, within 90 days after they occur.

5. Clarifies that the Governor has 6 appointments – four veterinarians, one RVT and one public member.

The Governor shall appoint the four veterinarian members, the one registered veterinary technician member, and one public member, qualified as provided in Section 4801. The Senate Committee on Rules and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a public member, qualified as provided in Section 4801.

6. Changes the quorum requirements for the Board from four to five based on change in overall board members from seven to eight.

SEC. 5. Section 4804.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4804.5. The board may appoint a person exempt from civil service who shall be designated as an executive officer and who shall exercise the powers and perform the duties delegated by the board and vested in him or her by this chapter.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2014, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2014, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6. Section 4807 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4807. Five members of the board constitute a quorum for transaction of business at any meeting of the board.

7. Defines the composition of the MDC.

SEC. 7. Section 4809.8 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4809.8. (a) The board shall establish an advisory committee to assist, advise, and make recommendations for the implementation of rules and regulations necessary to ensure proper administration and enforcement of this chapter and to assist the board in its examination, licensure, and registration programs. This committee shall be known as the Veterinary Medicine Multidisciplinary Advisory Committee. Members of the multidisciplinary committee shall be appointed by the board from lists of nominees solicited by the board. The committee shall consist of the following seven members: four licensed veterinarians, two registered veterinary technicians, and one public member. Members of the multidisciplinary committee shall represent a sufficient cross section of the interests in veterinary medicine in order to address the issues before it, as determined by the board, including veterinarians, registered veterinary technicians, and members of the public.

8. Establishes the MDC as a long term advisory committee of the Board and defines member terms.

(b) Multidisciplinary committee members shall hold office for a term of three years and appointments shall be staggered accordingly. A member may be reappointed, but no person shall serve as a member of the committee for more than two consecutive terms. Vacancies occurring shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term, within 90 days after they occur.

(c) The multidisciplinary committee shall be subject to the requirements of Article 9 (commencing with Section 11120) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(d) Multidisciplinary committee members shall receive a per diem as provided in Section 103 and shall be compensated for their actual travel expenses in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted by the Department of Personnel Administration.

(e) The board may remove a member of the multidisciplinary committee for continued neglect of a duty required by this chapter, for incompetency, or for unprofessional conduct.

SEC. 8. Section 4810 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4810. (a) As used in this chapter:

(1) "Board" means the Veterinary Medical Board.

(2) "Committee" means the Registered Veterinary Technician Committee.

(3) "Multidisciplinary committee" means the Veterinary Medicine Multidisciplinary Advisory Committee established pursuant to Section 4809.8.

(4) "Regulations" means the rules and regulations set forth in Division 20 (commencing with Section 2000) of Title 16 of the California Code of Regulations.

(b) This section shall become inoperative on the July 1 following the initial appointment of a registered veterinary technician to the board, and on the January 1 following that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that becomes operative on or before that January 1, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 4810 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

4810. (a) As used in this chapter:

- (1) "Board" means the Veterinary Medical Board.
 - (2) "Multidisciplinary committee" means the Veterinary Medicine Multidisciplinary Advisory Committee established pursuant to Section 4809.8.
 - (3) "Regulations" means the rules and regulations set forth in Division 20 (commencing with Section 2000) of Title 16 of the California Code of Regulations.
- (b) This section shall become operative on the July 1 following the initial appointment of a registered veterinary technician to the board.

9. Expands the reporting requirements for veterinarians to report injuries that occurred at a rodeo and requires the Board to develop and post a standard reporting form.

SEC. 10. Section 4830.8 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

4830.8. (a) An attending or on-call veterinarian at a rodeo event shall, pursuant to Section 596.7 of the Penal Code, report to the board any animal injury at the event requiring veterinary treatment within 48 hours of the conclusion of the rodeo.

(b) A veterinarian, other than a veterinarian identified in subdivision (a), shall report to the board within seven days of rendering treatment to an animal for an injury that the veterinarian knows occurred at a rodeo event.

(c) A report submitted pursuant to this section shall include the title, location, and date of the rodeo event, the name of the attending veterinarian at the event, the name of the reporting veterinarian, the type of animal, and a brief description of the injury suffered by the animal. The board shall post a form on its Internet Web site to be used by veterinarians for purposes of submitting this report.

(d) For purposes of this section, "rodeo" has the same meaning set forth in Section 596.7 of the Penal Code.

4832. (a) The board shall establish an advisory committee on issues pertaining to the practice of veterinary technicians, that shall be known as the Registered Veterinary Technician Committee, hereafter referred to as the committee.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that the Veterinary Medical Board, in implementing this article, give specific consideration to the recommendations of the Registered Veterinary Technician Committee.

(c) The committee shall consist of five members appointed by the board commencing January 1, 2009. Three members shall be registered veterinary technicians, one member shall be either a licensed veterinarian or an additional registered veterinary technician, and one member shall be a member of the public. Appointments shall be for a term of three years, and shall be staggered accordingly.

(d) No member of the committee shall serve for more than two terms. The committee shall annually elect one of its members as chairperson.

(e) The committee shall comply with Section 101.7.

(f) The scope of the committee shall not exceed the authority provided under Section 4833.

(g) This section shall become inoperative on the July 1 following the initial appointment of a registered veterinary technician to the board, and on the January 1 following that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that becomes operative on or before that January 1, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 4833 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4833. (a) The committee shall advise and may assist the board in the examination of applicants for veterinary technician registration. The examination shall be held at least once a year at the times and places designated by the board.

(b) The committee may investigate and evaluate each applicant applying for registration as a registered veterinary technician and may recommend to the board for final determination the admission of the applicant to the examination and eligibility for registration.

(c) The committee may make recommendations to the board regarding the establishment and operation of the continuing education requirements authorized by Section 4838 of this article.

(d) The committee shall advise and may assist the board in the inspection and approval of all schools or institutions offering a curriculum for training registered veterinary technicians.

(e) The committee may advise and assist the board in developing regulations to establish animal health care tasks and the appropriate degree of supervision required for those tasks for registered veterinary technicians and for unregistered assistants.

(f) The committee may advise and assist the board in developing regulations to define subdivision (c) of Section 4840, including, but not limited to, procedures for citations and fines, in accordance with Section 125.9.

(g) This section shall become inoperative on the July 1 following the initial appointment of a registered veterinary technician to the board, and on the January 1 following that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that becomes operative on or before that January 1, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.
