

REGISTERED VETERINARY TECHNICIAN INITIAL LICENSE APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Apply Online at www.BreEZe.ca.gov

This application is for:

- Initial licensure as a California Registered Veterinary Technician (RVT)

Required Fees

- Initial License Fee: $160

Additional Information

The Board must receive all required documentation/information prior to issuing a registered veterinary technician license, including, but not limited to:

- United States issued Social Security Number
- Verification of passing the Veterinarian Technician National Examination (VTNE) or equivalent**

Applicants who fail to apply for licensure within two (2) years from notification of eligibility are subject to abandonment of their application and must reapply pursuant to CCR section 2015.5.

The Veterinary Medical Board utilizes a birth month renewal system. The month in which you were born determines your initial license period.

For example, if you applied for your initial license in January and were born in July, your initial license period will expire two (2) birth months from application date, making the initial license period 19 months. Initial licenses will not be issued for less than 13 months and no more than 24 months. Following your initial license period, your license will renew biennially (every two (2) years).

**For AVMA or California-school approved applicants, in order to become licensed in California, the following examinations must be completed within 60 months (the 60-month timeframe begins once a candidate passes one of the following examinations):

- Veterinarian Technician National Examination (VTNE)
- California Veterinary Technician Examination (CVTE)

For applicants licensed out of state, in order to become licensed in California, applicant must provide verification from a state board that the Veterinary Technician National Examination (VTNE) or a written practical state board exam has been passed (written law & jurisprudence exam is not acceptable) in the state from which applicant is applying, or verification from a state board that passing the VTNE was required for registration/certification.
