Information Privacy Act

Failure to provide any of the requested information will result in the application being deemed incomplete. The information provided will be used to determine qualification for licensure, per Section 4841-4842 of the Business and Professions Code which authorizes the collection of this information. Information regarding the issuance or denial of a license by the Board may be transmitted to any other veterinary medical licensing authority. Candidates have the right to review their application subject to the provisions of the Information Practice Act. The Executive Officer is custodian of records.

Your completed application becomes the property of the Board and will be used by authorized personnel to determine eligibility. Information on the application may be transferred to other governmental or law enforcement agencies. Pursuant to the California Public Records Act (Gov. Code §6250 et seq.) and the Information Practices Act (Div. Code §1798.61), the names and addresses of persons possessing a license or registration may be disclosed by the department unless otherwise specifically exempt from disclosure under the law. The name and address included on this application is subject to public disclosure and may be disclosed upon request.

Information you provide on this application is maintained by the Executive Officer of the Veterinary Medical Board, 1747 N. Market Blvd., Suite 230, Sacramento, CA 95834, (916) 515-5220. The information is requested pursuant to Business and Professions Code sections 4832-4844 and/or Title 16, California Code of Regulations, Division 20, Article 6. You have the right to review the records maintained on you by the Board or department unless the records are exempt by section 1798.40 of the Civil Code. You may gain access to the information by contacting the Veterinary Medical Board.

Pursuant to Business and Professions Code Section §4852, every person holding a license who changes his or her mailing address shall notify the Board of his or her new mailing address within 30 days of the change. The Board shall not renew the license of any person who fails to comply with this section unless the person pays the penalty fee prescribed in Section §4905(j).

You have the right to review the records maintained on you by the Board or department unless the records are exempt by section 1798.40 of the Civil Code. You may gain access to the information by contacting the Veterinary Medical Board.
